DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 10, 11, and 16-19 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from another multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, these claims have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-9 and 12-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1, 12, and 13, the last two words “that region” have no antecedent basis.

Claim 2, line 2, “is capable of” does not provide a clear positive description of the bonding process.

Claim 5, line 3, “is capable of” does not provide a clear positive description of the bonding process.

Claim 12, line 4, “is capable of” does not provide a clear positive description of the bonding process.

Claim 13, line 5, “is capable of” does not provide a clear positive description of the bonding process.

The dependent claims contain the unclear description of the respective base claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-9 and 12-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over USPN 5,885,149 to Gillet et al in view of USPN 5,645,937 to Noda et al.

Gillet et al describe (column 1, lines 45-47) a diamond segment is fused to a steel core by electron beam.

Noda et al describe (Abstract) an interlayer which includes a carbide forming metal which reacts with diamond to form a carbide, thus realizing a strong bond.

Art Unit: 3742

The instant claimed electron beam bonding processes would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art because the beam joining is well known and because the material reaction process is well known.

Claims 1-9 and 12-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP 62207590A in view of USPN 5,645,937 to Noda et al.

JP 62207590A describes electron beam welding of PCD diamond sintered body and hard alloy member.

Noda et al describe (Abstract) an interlayer which includes a carbide forming metal which reacts with diamond to form a carbide, thus realizing a strong bond.

The instant claimed electron beam bonding processes would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art because the beam joining is well known and because the material reaction process is well known.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
